At Ease With Opera

In the spring, the Lyric Opera will feature two starkly contrasting productions, John Adams' dramatic Nixon in China and Gioacchino Rossini's hilarious Il Barbiere di Siviglia (The Barber of Seville). Find out more about these upcoming productions at the Lyric Opera Guild's free At Ease With Opera presentations. As always, dress is strictly casual and you are invited to bring your friends to learn more about the opera!

For Nixon in China, the Guild is presenting the following two programs:

🎵 Monday, February 20, 7:00 p.m. Kauffman Foundation, 4801 Rockill Road. Mara Gibson, local composer and director of the Academy at the UMKC Conservatory of Music and Dance, will discuss the music of composer John Adams in a program titled: "John Adams' Nixon in China: A Composer's Perspective." She will be assisted by vocalist Stephanie Meyer.

🎵 Monday, February 27, 7:00 p.m. Kauffman Foundation. Richard Byrum will give a preview of Nixon in China entitled "Nixon in China: A Study in Cultural Fault Lines."

Preceding The Barber of Seville, the Guild offers you these two programs:

🎵 Monday, April 9, 7:00 p.m. Kauffman Foundation. Don Dagenais and Bob Wise will present another in their series of unusual excerpts from opera, in "Great Arias From Forgotten Operas: The Sequel."

🎵 Monday, April 16, 7:00 p.m. Kauffman Foundation. Debra Karr will preview The Barber of Seville in a presentation entitled "A Cut Above: Rossini's Barber of Seville."

Bring your friends and enjoy these free informative programs!
